

LILT is in the process of searching for presenters for their Professional Development Workshop Series. Believing in the diverse talents and skills of Long Island's World Language Teachers, LILT provides the opportunity for individuals to identify their areas of expertise, and indicate ways in which they would be willing to share with others.

Maybe you have a lesson that is highly successful for you or a grammar or vocabulary unit that your students enjoy? There is much to offer and much to gain from teachers helping teachers. Sharing techniques, ideas and lessons that work in your classroom is a wonderful way to give back to our profession. New as well as veteran language teachers are always appreciative of new ways to enhance their lesson plans.

These workshops are usually scheduled during the months of February through the beginning of April. Workshops are two hours in length. This provides opportunity for hands on experience for all participants. Workshops are held in the school of the workshop presenter and may be held after school, Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays or Thursdays between 4-6 PM or on a Saturday from 10 AM-Noon.

Please print the proposal form on our website and submit by December 1. Please use one form per proposal, per workshop.
