

Stony Brook
University

A VERTICAL BUILDING

Languages from Elementary School to College

All World Language teachers are invited to this workshop which will explore ideas for articulating language teaching and learning, grades K-16.

Topics include: Integrating new teaching apps, promoting intercultural competence, and becoming familiar with new State standards, regulations and requirements.

FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 2020

Sixth Workshop for Language Teachers and Learners

Stony Brook University

Humanities Building, Room 1006

from 8:30 am to 1:00 pm

Limited Space: 119

CTLE 4 credits

Free of charge to all participants

Light refreshment will be provided

Click here to Register

Co-sponsors

Center for Italian Studies

Asian, Asian-American Studies

Hispanic Languages and Literature

European Languages, Literatures and Cultures,

D-TALE/School of Professional Development (SPD)

Contact:

elizabeth-a.tolson@stonybrook.edu

631-632-7440